

XM radio provides listeners with the needed information such as traffic and weather, especially the truck drivers. Truck drivers who have XM radio can tune into certain stations to get traffic and weather reports, especially if they have never been to a certain area and do not know which local station that provides traffic and weather information.